

You Can Still Get Help If Under Quarantine!

Keeping you safe at home is our mission!

Personal Emergency Medical Alert will give you peace of mind!

If you needed help, for any reason, a live person will talk to you and either call your loved one or EMS. Don't risk staying at home during this crisis without the protection of medical alert.

SeniorCare Experts partners with Guardian Medical Monitoring. We will ship you a unit, walk you through some brief steps and have you protected in no time!

Please call 502-896-2316. We are ready to help you. SeniorCare Experts is the provider of medical alerts in the Louisville area. Don't get scammed! Don't leave your house! It is our job to help you live safely regardless of your age or condition!
